SHOCKING CABUALTY-YOUNG LADY AND CHILD KILLED ON THE CENTRAL RAILROAD. The favors from this company are of the -A lamentable casualty occurred on the greatest value to us, and our obligations to Central Ohio railroad, to the train leaving this city Wednesday morning for the East. When near Pataskala, and in rapid motion, a brakeman ordered a lady who had seven children with her from one passenger car into another. The mother while passing out, requested a young lady passenger to assist her across the platform with her family, and the young lady generously volunteered her assistance. Taking a child about three years old in her arms the young lady attempted to step from one platform to another, but her foot or skirts cluded. caught upon something, and she was precipitated under the cars, still holding the child in her arms. The wheels of two cars passed over her, cutting off both her feet about the instep, one arm at the shoulder, and mangling her person in a most dreadful and shocking manner. She lived but a few minutes, and the child was instantly killed. The train was stopped hunting about the Reservoir are excellent, and the mangled bodies of the unfortunate and the sports are patronizing that instituyoung lady and infant were conveyed to a tion. neighboring house and properly cared for. The young ladywhose life was thus suddenly and horribly terminated, was about eighteen years of age and of prepossessing appearance, and was on her way from Lexington, Kentucky, to her home in Philadelphia.

OFFICIAL WAR BULLETIN.

Almost a Defeat—Sheridan Driven Four Miles, and Loses 20 Pieces of Artillery-He Rallies his Army and Wins a Great Victory over Longstreet - He Captures 43 Pieces of Artille y and a Large Number of Prisoners.

WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, Oct. 20, 10:45 A. M.

Major General Dix, New York: A great battle was fought and a splendid vistory won by Sheridan over Longstreet yesterday, at Cedar creek. Forty-three leces of artillery were captured, and many orisoners, among whom was the rebel Gen Hamesur. On our side Generals Wright and Ricketts were wounded, and General Bidwell, of Buffalo, killed. Particulars, so ar as received, will be furnished as fast as the operator can transmit them. [Signed] E. M. STANTON.

Secretary of War. The following is Sheridan's official re-

CEDAR CREEK, Oct. 19, 10 P. M.

Lieutenant General Grant, City Point: I have the honor to report that my arms t Cedar creek was attacked at Alacken this morning before daylight, and my left was turned and driven in confusion. In fact, most of the line was driven in confusion, with a loss of twenty pieces of artil-lery. I hastened from Winchester, where I was on my return from Washington, and found the army between Middletown and Newton, having been driven back about four miles. I here took the affair in hand and marched the corps forward, and formed a compact line of battle to repulse an attack of the enemy, which was done handsomely at about one o'clock P. M. At three P. M., after some charges of the cavalry from the left to the right flank, I attacked with great vigor, driving and routing the enemy, cap-turing, according to the last report, fortythree pieces of artillery and very many prisoners. I do not know the number of casualties or losses of the enemy. Wagon trains, ambulances, &c., in large numbers, are in our possession. They also burned some of their trains. General Ramesur is s a prisoner in our hands, severely wounded. perhaps mortally.

I have to regret the loss of General Bid-

Affairs at times looked badly, but by the gallantry of our brave officers and men, disaster has been converted into a splendid rictory. Darkness again intervened to shut off greater results.

I now occupy Strasburg. As soon as practicable I will send you further particuulars. [Signed] P. H. SHERIDAN, Major General. The battle was fought on the same day, Oth, of the month that witnessed Sheridan's ictory in September. What numbers were pposed to Sheridan are not yet reported to he department, but the boldness, vigor and success of the attack strongly indicate that a heavy reinforcement had been sent from tichmond with the expectation of fulfilling Longstreet's boast to "smash up Sheridan. Longstreet, was known to be in the valley. and had assumed command of the army, and confident hopes of an overwhelming disaster to the Union army were boastfully xpressed for several days back by rebel [Signed] Washington and Baltimore. [Signed] Secreatry of War.

He Occupies Strasburg-Skirmishing with the Enemy-Wanton Destruction of Property in Luray Valley.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20 .- The Herald's corespondent with Sheridan, dating the 14th, writes: Gen. Sheridan has his troops well in hand on the northwest bank of Cedar creek, the rebels having fallen back to Fisher's Hill, in the rear of Strasburg, which town is now occupied by our skirmishers. Residents of Strasburg say that on Wednes-day night last a larger force of rebels passed through that town than they had ever seen before. This doubtless gave rise to the report that Longstreet had been heavily re-inforced with both infantry and artillery.— At Gen. Sheridan's headquarters it is not believed that they have received any infantry reinforcements, but the large number of cannon recently captured by Gen. Sheridan renders the latter part of the report very probable.

To-day our skirmish line was again advanced, and the rebels fell slowly back after exchanging a few shots with our advanced guard. The whole command, notwithstand-ing their fatiguing marches, are in excel-lent spirits and health, and anxious to fight

Another correspondent of the 14th says: On the right of our army line Gen. Custar, this morning, soon after daylight, made a reconnoissance of the enemy's position and strength, by advancing three regiments across Cedar creek at Cupp's Mill, near the back road close to the North Mountain, and after pressing forward for about two miles and a half, it was ascertained to a certainty that the rebels had fallen back for a considerable distance during the previous night.

On the way out we skirmished with small parties of the enemy's mounted forces, but met with no determined, serious opposition. We also passed a place where it was evident there had been a camp during the early part of the evening of the day before:

The Herald's Front Royal correspondent,
15th, says: The line of communication between General Sheridan's headquarters and Augur, whose headquarters are on the line of the Manassas Gap railroad, is open without molestation or interruption. The open-ing and the keeping open of the Manassas Gap railroad line, the rebels look upon as a greater victory than any victory attained by the army of the Shenandoah Valley. The importance of what we have gained in the respect mentioned, cannot be explained to the public, and hence the people at home cannot well appreciate its magnitude. Time will develope the whole.

The Secretary of War has issued an order thanking Gen. Sheridan, his officers and soldiers, for their brilliant victories.

The Herald correspondent gives the following particulars of Col. Powell's cavalry raid in the Luray Valley:

Their first adventure was with a guerrilla Their first adventure was with a guerrilla rendezvous, where they surprised the guard and captured the army wagons. The stores captured were valued at $7000. At Lursy all the barns were destroyed, and while in the act a Union soldier was seized by citizens and murdered by cutting his throat. Subsequently two of Mosby's men were captured and shot to death in retaliation. The same day a Government tannery was destroyed, in which was $85,000 worth of leather, and $300 worth of stock was seized. leather, and $300 worth of stock was seized. From Newmarket to Woodville the country was laid waste, as also in the circuit to Madison Court House and Little Washing-ton, back to Luray. Thence the command proceeded to Front Royal, where all the barns for four miles and their contents were destroyed.

On the route Col. Powell heard that Mc-Causland, with cavalry, was near, and he gave chase, but being encumbered with a heavy train, could not overtake him. At Sandy Hook the fine residence and barns of Jas. Chancelfor, one of Mosby's guerrillas, were destroyed. Chancellor had murdered a Union soldier a few days pre-

The result of the expedition was the capture of 6,500 head of cattle, 500 horses, the destruction of 32 flouring mills, 30 distillerize, 4 blast furnaces and upwards of 50 barns.

FROM SHERMAN'S ARMY.

The Enemy Routed in Two Engage-ments-Sherman in Pursuit of Hood. New York, Oct. 20 .- The Philadelphia Inquirer of this morning has the following: CHATTANOOGA, Oct. 19 .- Capt. Marsh, of the 4th United States Regulars, has just arrived from Villianow, which place he left yesterday. He reports that Col. Minty's birgade of cavalry has met the enemy in force, and after a severe fight our troops charged and routed the rebels, capturing Gen. Young and a large number of prisoners. On the 12th the same cavalry charged Roddy's command at Rome with sabres killed and captured a number, taking all his artillery, and scattering the remainder. On the 17th our advance came upon Hood's rear guard and whipped it and drove it out of Snake Gap. Yesterday Gen. Sherman started in pursuit of the rebels, who were retreating southward via Bloomtown Val-

ard. Washington, Oct. 20 .- The President was serenaded last night, and made the following speech: I am notified this is a compliment paid me by local Marylanders resident in this District. I infer that the adoption of the new Constitution for the State furnishes the occasion, and that in your view the extirpation of slavery constitutes the chief merit of the new Constitution. Most heartily do well, killed, and Generals Wright, Grover I congratulate you, Maryland, the nation and Ricketts, wounded. Wright is slight- and the world upon the event. I regret and the world upon the event. I regret that it did not occur two years sooner, which I am sure would have saved to the nation more money, and that would have met all the private loss incident to the measure. But it has come at last, and I sincerely hope its friends may fully realize all their anticipations of good from it, and that its opponents may by its effects be agreeably and profitably disappointed. A word upon another subject. Some-thing said by the Secretary of State, in his recent speech at Auburn, has been construed by some into a threat that if I shall be beaten at the election I will, between then and the end of my constitutional term, do what I may be able to ruin the Govern-Others regard the fact that the Chicago Convention adjourned not sine die, but to meet again if called to do so by particular individuals, as an intimation of a purpose that if its nominee shall be elected he will at once seize control of the Government. I hope the good people will permit themselves to suf-fer no uneasiness on either point. I am struggling to maintain the Government, not to overthrow it. I therefore say that if I shall live I shall remain President until the 4th of next March, and that whoever shall be constitutionally elected therefor in November, shall be duly installed as President on the 4th of March, and that in the interval I shall do my utmost that whoever is to hold the helm for the next voyage shall stand the best possible chance to save the ship. This is due to the people both on principle and under the Constitution. Their constitutionally expressed will is the ulti-mate law for all. If they should deliberately resolve to have immediate peace, even at the loss of their country and libert es, I know not the power or right to resist them. It is their own business, and they must do as they please with their own. I believe, however, they are still resolved to preserve their country and their liberty, and in this office or out of it. I am resolved to stand by them. I may add that in this purpose to save the country and its liberties no class of people seem so nearly unanimous as the soldiers in the field and seamen affoat. Do they not have the hardest of it? Who should quail, when they do not? God bless the soldiers and seamen and all their brave commanders.

Guerrilla Operations on the Potomac.

New York, Oct. 20 .- The Commercial's New York, Oct. 20.—The Commercial's Washington special has the following:
The guerrillas of Mosby's gang are becoming bold in their depredations, and, guided by secession residents of the country who embrace every opportunity to act the part of spies and informers, frequently raid some distance within the Union lines. Wednesday morning at one o'clock a party of four of Mosby's men approached the house of Mr. Reed, one hundred yards from Falls Church hospital and seven miles from Washington, and surrounded Mr. Reed and two out of five of his negroes, who were aiding him to guard his property. One of the negroes was shot dead. The gang then carried Mr. Reed and the other negro ten miles to the woods, where they shot and killed Mr. Reed and severely wounded the negro. They then decamped. One of the survivors managed to return after the mur-derers left, and guided a party of soldiers to the spot where his master was killed, and secured the body.

The merchants who were arrested in this The merchants who were arrested in this city Monday on a charge of contrabanding, were brought to trial to-day before a military commission. Sheridan to Supersede Meade.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20 .- The World's Washington special has a report that Sheridan will shortly supersede Meade. The reason given is a disagreement between Grant and Meade concerning some movements south of Petersburg.

New York, Oct. 20.— Broadway is again decked in national colors in celebration of Sheridan's late magnificent victory.

Eight of the Bank Robbers Caught. Burlington, Vr., Oct. 20.—Eight of the raiders who entered St. Albans and robbed the banks and murdered citizens, have been caught, and $50,000 of the money recover-ed. They were caught at Stanbridge and Farnham, Canada East. The remainder have been seen on the road, and will prob-ably also be captured.

The St. Albans Bank and the 1st National Bank of St. Albans will both redeem their bills as usual. The recent robbery t as not affected their solvency. St. Albans, Oct. 20-4 P. M.—Capt. Con-ger's party have just returned and report that they caught the leader of the raiders at Stanbridge and recovered $100,000 in addition to the $50,000 recovered this morning. The Canadian authorities are still after the villains, and there is a good prospect of the capture of the whole gang. The Gov-ernor General of Canada has telegraphed that he will respond to a requisition from the United States Government for the surrender of the robbers already arrested and uch as may be hereafter arrested. The St. Albans Bank lost $75,000; the Franklin County Bank $85,000, and the First National Bank $54,000.

All apprehensions of any further danger at present from the marauders is entirely oved. Captain Wickerson, of the Veteran Reserve Corps, is garrisoning the bor-der with 145 convalescents from the hospitals at Brattleboro. Judge Aldie, of the Supreme Court, has just returned from Montreal, where he had a satisfactory interview with the Canadian authorities, and is now preparing the necessary papers to bring the captured raiders before our courts under the extradition treaty.

Major Austin has dispatched C. L. Barstow to St. Johns, C. E., in order, if possible, to secure the arrest of a party of the raiders who are approaching that place from Stanstead. The banks of this place suffered severely, but the St. Albans Bank announces that they will redeem their bills. We learn that in a skirmish last evening at Lorelesburg four of the raiders were eaptured. Wm. Hunt, of the bailiffs of that municipality, fell mortally wounded while endeavoring to capture the raiders. The provincial authorities of the frontier

Boston, Oct. 20.—The stables at River Side Trotting Park, in Brighton, were destroyed by fire last night, with twenty-three horses, including some of the best trotting stock in the country. The following are some of the famous horses lost: Young Sultan and May Kimball, both owned by J. E. Financial-The National Banks. New York, Oct. 20.—The Commercial, in its money article says: There are indications that some important modifications of the financial policy of the Government will be proposed next Congress. The whole machinery of finance has worked with so much irregularity, and is producing such embarrassing fluctuations in the commerce of the country, that Congress will be called upon to retract some of its past errors.

The National Banks are not satisfied with the conditions by which Congress has regulated their action, and at their meeting held yesterday at the Astor House organized a rmanent organization for p interests. Among other things against which they ask to be shielded, is the tax law, which they maintain operates oppressively upon their interests. The movement of the banks is in direct opposition to the views of the Treasury Department, and Comptroller McCullough is understood to have strongly denounced any protective combination, and we have information from well informed sources at Washington that Secretary Fessenden contemplates recommending to suppress the advocation of a law authorizing the payment of custom duties in greenbacks, the motive being, by putting down the price of gold, to reduce the expenditures of the Government.

The Canadian Confederation. QUEBEC, Oct. 20 .- The Confederation Conference has decided in reference to members to the Legislative Councils to the new Confederacy, that they be selected from the members of the Legislative Council of the several provinces, instead of selected by the people. Provision is made for the admission of representatives from the Red river country. The Conference are engaged in the discussion of the appointment of the representation of the Lower House. Business Resumed at Memphis. CAIRO, Oct. 20 .- The steamer Nannie Byers, from Memphis, passed with 340 bales of cotton for Cincinnati. Business, which had been entirely suspended at Memphis. has been resumed again and the militia discharged, as the danger is believed to be passed. It is the opinion at headquarters that the rebels have no intention of attaking Memphis, and that their presence be-yond is merely designed to cover a march of troops into Kentucky. There is no reb-el force within five miles of the city. The last heard of Chalmers he was south of Hernando, retreating towards the Swamps of the Tallahatchie.
